

More Than a Lemonade Stand Ground Rules, Expectations and Consequences

Basic Ground Rules:

- Be on time each day and make sure someone is here to pick you up at 4:00 each day.
- Respect each other and their contributions even when you disagree.
- Laugh with others; not laugh at others.
- Be responsible for your materials.
- All participants should contribute to discussions because all contributions are important.
- Listen while others are talking
- Respect and show courteous behavior towards each other and the instructors.

Please note any additional ones agreed upon during our camp discussion:

Expectations:

- Share your strengths and talents with fellow campers.
- Make new friends.
- Learn the use of the Internet as a learning resource.
- Learn more about using PowerPoint or Prezi to make professional presentations.
- Learn from other people's experiences.
- Learn what it takes to start your own business.
- Create your own business poster for family and friends.
- Create a presentation and present it to the class.
- Create your own business card for your business idea.

Please note any additional ones agreed upon during our camp discussion:

Consequences:

- If you do not follow the ground rules and expectations you will receive a warning from one of the camp instructors.
- If you are warned 3 times you will be escorted to the office and your parent/guardian will be notified.
- If the behavior continues you will have to leave the camp.
